

Sylan

110 Queens Street Glasgow

Architect: Cooper Cromar

Main contractor: BAM Construction

110 Queen Street is a mixed-use development offering retail and office space encased within a concave façade of curtain wall glazing, located on the site of the former Bank of Scotland Building in Glasgow City Centre.

Sylan Real Wood Veneer Cubicles

- Flush fronted
- Strong and Secure
- Invisible fixing system
- Ideal for where low impact interiors are needed
- Available in 11 Real Wood Veneers

Real Wood Veneer Duct Panelling

- Co-ordinating panelling to cubicles
- Infinite repetition of colour
- Available in 11 Real Wood Veneers

